YVES MOREAU'S BALKAN DANCE WORKSHOPS
SET OCT. 18-19 IN WOMEN'S CENTER GYM

MISSOULA--

Yves Moreau, a teacher who is an internationally known authority on Balkan dance, will teach free dance workshops Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 18-19, at the University of Montana in Missoula.

The workshops, which will be open to the public, are designed for dancers of all levels. The programs will be from 10 a.m.-noon and 2-4 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 18, and 1-3 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 19, in the Women's Center Gym.

Free open dancing programs in conjunction with Moreau's visit will be presented from 8 p.m.-midnight Saturday at the UM Married Student Housing Clubhouse and 3-5 p.m. Sunday in the UM Women's Center Gym.

Moreau, a native of Montreal, Que., is the consultant on folk dance matters for the City of Montreal Parks and Recreation Department. He also is artistic director for a Montreal-based performing group.

Since 1966, Moreau has returned each year to the Balkans to research and collect folklore material. As a teacher, he has shared this material with students in nearly every state and province in North America, as well as in Europe and Mexico. He also has recorded a number of folk dance presentations.

Moreau's visit is cosponsored by the UM International Folk Dancers and the Campus Recreation Department.

Susan Guthrie is coordinator of Moreau's visit.
